CHINA TIRED OF WAR, GOVT. TOTTERING?

Chiang's Clash With Communists

MAY APPEAL TO BRITAIN TO ENABLE INDIA TO COME TO HIS RESCUE

LONDON, Oct. 30.

What is happening in China? This question is engaging the serious attention of Great Britain and America at the moment.

There are signs that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Government are breaking up. It is gathered from reliable American sources that the Generalissimo will soon have to deal with the Communists. In this connection may be recalled the recent visit to Chungking of Mr. Henry Wallace who attempted to bring about some understanding between the Generalissimo and the Communist Party in China on the express orders of President Roosevelt.

A local newspaper reveals that some of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's closest advisers are getting tired of war and the result has been some strange happenings.

Certain people are travelling without difficulty between occupied and unoccupied China and a new political group has been set up around the Chan brothers who have always advocated a policy of coming to terms with Japan before China's financial system breaks down entirely.

It seems a far cry from China to India, but a Chinese who recently returned from Chungking told the United Press of India that this crisis might lead to the Generalissimo making one more appeal to the British Prime Minister to settle the Indian question.

"Chiang has great faith", added the Chinese, "in Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and his ability to help China. India with a National Government of her own and Pandit Nehru free to mobilise India's resources for helping China will avert any impending calamity and enable China to fight to the finish". This argument sounds reasonable if one looks back to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's previous two attempts to appeal to Britain to end the Indian deadlock which almost synchronised with the critical turn into China's military fortune.—United Press of India.

BRITISH TROOPS OPEN ATTACK ON DUNKIRK

Canadians Occupy Half Of Beveland: Advance South Of Maas Continues

LONDON, Oct. 30.

The German News Agency reports that British troops yesterday opened an attack on the German garrison surrounded in the fort of Dunkirk.

The Agency added: "The enemy forced a breach in the eastern approaches to Dunkirk but this breach has been sealed off for the time being. All other attacks broke down under German fire".

Half Of Beveland Occupied

From Reuter's special correspondent with the Canadian First Army (Monday): Canadian troops slicing through rapidly collapsing resistance on south Beveland, have smashed westwards right across the Island to threaten the Germans' only land escape route to Walcheren over the intact causeway. This morning they had reached a point only 3,000 yards from the causeway and are closing into the trap thousands of Germans who had been strongly resisting the expansion of the British manned beachhead on the southern shores of south Beveland.

With the latest advances and the capture of the town Goes British and Canadian troops now control almost half of the island. South of the Scheldt, the Germans after abandoning Cadzland and its heavy guns retreated into the small triangular pocket bounded by the waterways around Knocke and Heyst on the west coast. This is their last stand.

KAAZSHEUVEL CAPTURED

Kaazsheuvel, three miles south of Maas and seven miles north of Tilburg has been captured.

ADVANCE SOUTH OF MAAS

S.H.A.E.F. (PARIS), Oct. 30: General Eisenhower's "communique" to-day states: "Cadzand and Zuidzande south of the Scheldt have been taken by Allied troops.

In Zuid Beveland our troops freed Goes and linked up with our seaborne force in the area of Hoedekenskerke. The seaborne bridgehead also was enlarged to the west.

Defences on the island of Walcheren were attacked yesterday by heavy bombers, one of which is missing, and by fighter bombers. Fighters which escorted the heavy bombers made lowlevel attacks on flak positions.

Allied forces continued their advance along the whole front south of Maas. Breda was freed by troops advancing from the east. Other forces driving from the south cut the road between Breda and Roosendaal. Fighter-bombers strafed targets north of these two towns and medium bombers attacked a bridge at Moerdijk.

In the area north of Tilburg our forces are some miles north and west of Loon Op Zand. Fighter bombers cut railway lines between Amersfoort and Zwolle in the Venlo area and elsewhere behind the battle areas in Holland. In south-eastern Holland, medium bombers also attacked communications at Venlo and a bridge at Roermond. Our ground forces held further enemy attacks in the Thevmeux Meijel area. Bridges at Kons Karthaus, Eskirchen Mayen and Ellery were targets for medium bombers, and fighter-bombers destroyed three bridges and damaged a fourth across river Ahr south of Bonn and sealed two railway tunnels.

"TIRPITZ" ATTACKED

Fighter-bombers hit highways radiating northwards from Duren, a railway yard at Kerpen, and cut raillines in many places between Munster and the Dutch-German frontier and in the areas of Bonn and Coblenz. They also attacked locomotives, railcars and barges over a wide area and silenced gun positions.

East of Bamberwilers, Wa. took Fraipertuis and held the village against strong counter-attacks. Other counter-attacks against our positions in the Vosges mountains were repulsed. Yesterday morning heavy bombers, one of which is missing, attacked the battleship "Tirpitz" near Tromso.

According to reports so far received, 28 enemy aircraft were shot down during yesterday. One medium bomber and nine fighter-bombers are missing."

FIGHTING WEST OF MEUSE

(From Reuter's special correspondent with the British Second Army (Monday):—A real hammer-and-tongs battle is developing to-day on the Eastern Flank of General Dempsey's Snijmegen salient as the Germans attack west of the Meuse. Field-Marshal Models thrust is supported by two Panzer divisions and Luftwaffe formations of 20 and 30 planes. Yes-

SOVIET DRIVE ON HUNGARY

Stalemate On East Prussian Front

MOSCOW, Oct. 30.—From Reuter's special correspondent: The flood of troops and equipment is to-day moving over the normally deserted Ruthenian roads towards north-eastern Hungary. The Red Army is crossing rivers. In the towns and villages on their route people are bringing out their last wines and preserves, long hoarded for the celebration of the first victory Christmas, to greet the Soviet forces.

RUSSIANS CAPTURE CSOP

Sunday's Soviet 'communique' announces the capture of Csop, an important railway junction on the borders of Ruthenia-Slovakia and Hungary.

Reuter's Special Correspondent: A temporary stalemate appears have set in on the east Prussian front where the Russians are reported to have been confronted with another powerful line of German fortifications since their original break-through.

The days and nights of the fiercest battles have brought no further substantial advantage to either side.

YUGOSLAVS IN ZAGREB OUTSKIRTS

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Free Yugoslav Radio quoting Marshal Tito's 'communique' said to-day that units of the Yugoslav Army of Liberation have reached the outskirts of Zagreb the capital of Croatia.

The communique added greater part of Slovania has been freed, while in the south the Germans during the past few days have been hurriedly retreating from Greece, Albania and Macedonia, and trying to reach Sarajevo. The entire Dalmatian coastline from Zara to Herzegnovi is in Partisan hands.

ARTILLERY DUEL 60 MILES WEST OF BUDAPEST.

The German overseas news agency correspondent, Karl Kraus, reports a heavy artillery duel less than 60 miles west of Budapest. He said: "Soviet artillery and German tank guns roar out day and night along the Tisa on a front of 40 to 50 miles pivoting on the key town of Szolnok, 55 miles south-west of Budapest.

NAZI WITHDRAWAL IN LATVIA.

The German news agency reports a new German withdrawal in the Latvian pocket where the Russians are said to be attacking with over 500,000 men. In the Autz (Auce) area 70 miles east of Libau, the German front has been taken back a few miles says the agency.

Gen. Blamey Speaks Out

There Are 90,000 Japs Between Philippines And Australia

SYDNEY, Oct. 30: The Commander of the Allied land forces in the South-West Pacific, Gen. Sir Thomas Blamey, said to-day that whatever victory the Allies achieved in the Philippines or farther north, substantial, fit and well armed Japanese forces must be eliminated before it could be claimed that the task assigned to the United Nations had been completed. The number of disciplined and organised Japanese between the Philippines and Australia was greatest in the comparatively short arc extending from Wewak and British New Guinea to the Solomons through New Britain and New Ireland. Gen. Blamey said the it was estimated that there were 90,000 Japanese troops. On the west flank there were probably 18,000 Japanese in Dutch New Guinea and there might be mere thousands in the Celebes and Borneo. All sections of Allied forces including Australian and British would have to do their share in this mopping up operations.

Stilwell's Clash With Br. Command?

(From Our Correspondent).

LONDON, Oct. 30.

"Daily Mail's" New York Correspondent says there are at least half a dozen theories in Washington for recall of Gen. Stilwell.

Rumour number 1, Vinegar Joe was removed after the request from Chiang Kai-shek. Until she left China about two months ago for United States, Madame Chiang had been the only communications link between Gen. Stilwell and Chiang Kai-shek. Both refused to write or speak to one another.

Rumour Number 2: Gen. Stilwell did not work in close harmony with the British "over-all" command and is said to have been impatient with the delays resulting from the necessity for submitting proposals for operations to Gen. Auchinleck.

He is reported to have considered "British too slow moving and more interested in quelling Indian disorders than sending troops for the opening of Burma Road.

Rumour Number 3: Gen. Stilwell had a long smouldering feud with Major-General Clare Chennault, Commander of the Fourteenth American Air Force over the type of military operations best suited for campaigning in China.

INDIAN LANGUAGES JOURNALISTS PROTEST

NAZIS PLUMP FOR GAS WARFARE

Fastest Fighter And New Type Of Submarine

LONDON, (By Cable): The Germans are experimenting with a new poison gas powder which they hope will make gas masks useless, cables the "Daily Mail" Stockholm correspondent. If it fulfils anticipations, it could be flung into the air over large bodies of men such as infantry and penetrate all known types of gas mask. It would be used presumably with poison gas, so troops would be faced with the alternative of being poisoned either by the powder or gas.

According to reports in Stockholm, the Germans have about 70 big poison gas factories working day and night. Large quantities of gas are said be kept in underground stores in Germany. The gas factory at Koenigsdorf in Bavaria, is believed to cover an area of 15 square miles, with 220 buildings, employing many thousands, including 6,000 foreign workers.

Estimates say that at least 500,000 workers in Germany are now making poison gas. In a recent raid on Darmstadt, part of a poison gas factory was hit and 12,000 civilians were killed. Military observers say that Germany may plump for gas warfare because she is running out of hard steel for ordinary shells.

FASTEST FIGHTER PLANE

A high neutral authority from Berlin told me (adds the correspondent) that German officials now claim to have perfected a revolutionary type of fighter plane capable of travelling at speeds ranging from 850 to 1,000 miles per hour. The new fighter plane was recently tested but when flown at 600 m.p.h. began to fall to pieces. My informant said: "The Germans told me that the plane is now being re-designed and the Germans have hopes of using it early in the New Year.

"I got the impression that this information was based on something more than mere propaganda. I was not shown the new plane or given any proof that it exists, but I do know, however, that the latest German jet-propelled planes are capable of developing speeds approaching 850 m.p.h. and some of these have been in operation."

NEW TYPE OF SUBMARINE

Travellers arriving in Stockholm from Bornholm say that the Germans have built a new type of small submarine which carries a crew of eight. It is between 100 and 200 tons in size, and is said to be very fast both under and on the surface.

WHY THIS STIGMA OF INFERIORITY?

MADRAS, Oct. 30.

Mr. T. S. Chockalingam Editor of "Dinasari" and Vice-President of the Tamil Nad Journalists' Federation and President-elect of the Tamil Writers' Conference, has issued the following statement:

"I am glad that the Standing Committee of the All-India Newspaper Editors' Conference has accepted the recommendations of its sub-committee with regard to the minimum basic salary for journalists. The invidious distinction that is sought to be made between the English and Indian language newspapers is, however, untenable and deserves vigorous condemnation.

"The work of an Indian language newspaper demands no less strain and efficiency than an English journal. As a matter of fact, it requires greater skill and power of concentration. Where, then, is the need for this discrimination?

"The Standing Committee points out that the recommendations 'have the previous approval of the Indian Language Newspapers' Association.' It would be interesting to know how many Indian language newspapers—Tamil newspapers in particular—are members of that Association.

"So far as Madras is concerned, I am sure that the Tamil journalists would unhesitatingly repudiate the carries with it the stigma of inferiority on their status. They will not recile from the stand taken by the Tamil Nad Journalists' Federation. It may be pointed out that the Committee appointed by this Association, makes no difference in its recommendations between the staff of the Vernacular papers and the weeklies and that of the English journals. It expects the staff of these to be equal in standard, training and efficiency as members of the English papers.

"I hope, therefore that the A.I.N.E.C. would immediately rescind the offending clause from its resolution and restore confidence in the minds of the Indian Language Journalists in its earnestness to improve their lot.—A.P.

WHY EXCLUDE PROOF READERS?

CALCUTTA, Oct. 30.

The Indian Journalists' Association, Calcutta, meeting yesterday adopted a resolution inviting the attention of the All-India Newspaper Editors' Conference to the exclusion of the proof readers from the scheme of improvement of conditions of working journalists.

The Association also regrets that the Committee of the A.I.N.E. Conference recommended a differential minimum salary for the English and Indian language papers and opines that there was no reason to make this invidious distinction.—United Press.

ARE JOURNALISTS BORN OR MADE?

Bombay Editors Address Lahore Students

LAHORE, Oct. 29.

There was a debate on whether journalists are born as such or can be made on Saturday evening, when distinguished Journalists mostly from Bombay addressed the student of the Punjab University Department of Journalism. Mr. F. W. Bustin was in the Chair.

Mr. S. A. Brelvi, President of the Newspaper Editors' Conference, believed it was not possible for any University to produce journalists. He still held the view that the best school of journalism was journalism itself. He, however, commended the Punjab experiment as worthwhile. He feared he could not give any encouraging advice to those that aspired to be journalists because the field was so limited. But in India of time future when they will be free, he hoped there would be larger opportunities, particularly for journalists in Indian languages, self-governing institutions would need a more responsible press than it was at present, to champion popular causes.

FACE THE FACTS

Sir Francis Low, editor, "Times of India" said that while he agreed with Mr. Brelvi that the best school of journalism was journalism itself he recognised that changing conditions had to be faced. Classes in journalism were valuable. In that they gave young aspirants the opportunity of securing a good grounding in the elements of their profession before they entered a newspaper office. Nagpur University was proposing to follow the example of the Punjab by having a class in journalism, and the question had been mooted in Bombay, he said.

BETTER TIMES WILL COME!

At present Indian journalism offered few opportunities. But the conditions prevailing today were not going to continue. The field for journalism would expand with the expansion and growth of education." We must insist on the spread of education. We must educate our masters," he said. He thought if they got an educated democracy they would have a great future before them.

LET DOWN—BY CHAUFFEUR

Mr. Preston Grover, Associated Press of America, related how he, by sheer bluff, very nearly got into the Agha Khan Palace without any permission to see Mahatma Gandhi, soon after his arrest in August 1942. He was let down, he said, by chauffeur who having forced an entry, stopped at the gate to ask the guard's permission to go in. Mr. Grover mentioned this incident as an example of the dash and initiative journalists must possess if they wanted to succeed in their trade.—A.P.

How the Paper Control (Distribution) Order secures distribution of available supplies in accordance with requirements

This Control Order supplements the Paper Control (Economy) Order, the object of which is to impose obligatory economy on non-essential users of paper in favour of more essential consumers. By issuing the Paper Control (Distribution) Order, Government has taken under control all paper available for civilian consumption. When the necessary information has been collected instructions will be issued to manufacturers and importers of paper to send paper to each area in accordance with its requirements thus ensuring supplies for essential consumers.

Neither of these two Control Orders aims at reducing the quantity of paper available for civilian consumption, which remains the same as before. But the need for utmost economy is still as imperative as ever.

Copies of the Paper Control (Distribution) Order, 1944, can be obtained on payment of one anna per copy from the Manager of Publications, Civil Lines, Delhi, or from any of the Agents selling Government publications.

Khaksar Leader's Plea For "Unity Of Action"

Department For Hindu-Muslim Understanding Launches Campaign

BOMBAY, Oct. 30.

"It is now one month since the Gandhi-Jinnah talks broke down. The aftermath of frustration and dismay is over. Now is the fittest time to start our work afresh," says Mr. Syed Allah Baksh Shah, head of the political department in his message to Khaksars on the eve of the campaign launched by the Department for Muslim-Hindu understanding.

"It is for us to see that when Mahatma Gandhi and Qaid-e-Azam meet again," he adds, "they meet in a definitely better atmosphere, in an atmosphere that will guarantee the immediate promulgation if the decisions they arrive at."

Continuing he says: "The task before us is stupendous. There are many obstacles, visible and invisible. But the greatest among them is the dread of the imaginary 'third power.' We must belie that false dread. We must prove that when people determine to unite, no 'third power', imaginary or real, in fact no power on earth can stop them from doing so. And by the help of God we shall prove it."

Concluding he has instructed Khaksar leaders all over India to strive to create at their respective centres 'Unity in Action' and try to bring about active co-operation between the leaders of both the communities for the solution of local problems.—United Press.

BENARES HINDU UNIVERSITY

An Appeal From Old Students

Mr. G. B. Pant, honorary general secretary of the Old Students' Association, Benares Hindu University, writes:—

The Benares Hindu University has now to its credit a record of service of over twenty-five years. It has produced over ten thousand graduates in various faculities and in the field of technological education, the University has been a pioneer institution and has been responsible for supplying to the ever increasing number of industries qualified, technically trained staff, a good many out of those are to-day occupying key positions. The Benares Hindu University has thus facilitated the industrialisation of the country and has contributed to a great extent to the material prosperity.

It was at the end of the last great war, that this University came into being and it was in one public meeting in Bombay alone that revered Malaviyaji collected a sum of 28 lakhs. He is old and too weak to move out address and stir the minds of the public. The progress of the University, though phenomenal so far, is still greatly handicapped due to the paucity of funds. The University is still over-burdened with a debt of ten lakhs of rupees and has a recurring deficit of one and a half lake annually.

May I appeal to the ever generous Bombay public to take up the cause of this National University? Every good cause has received due recognition from Bombay. The old students of the University have responded well to my appeal and within four days have contributed just a little over ten thousand for an internal telephone system for the University and I am almost certain that they will collect the balance of ten thousand and remit the same to me. I appeal to the old students kindly to send their particulars regarding the year of passing, present post and address at an early date along with their own contributions.

Independent Picture Producers Meet Dalal

BOMBAY, Monday.

"It is deplorable that the Department of Planning and Development could not think of the film industry of our country while setting up panels for seventeen industries although the Indian film industry stands eighth in the economy of the country. The motion picture industry has been considered in Europe as an essential industry both in peace and war due to its rich accomplishments. This can be substantiated by only two quotations, one of Lord Halifax, British Ambassador to the U.S.A. and an ex-Viceroy of India and the other by Mr. Donald Nelson, Chairman of the War Production Board of the United States. Lord Halifax considers "Motion pictures are of vital element in maintaining law and moral of both our civilians and fighting forces", while Mr. Nelson appreciates the importance of the film by his remark "The screen has helped us to inform the public on vital problems". Thus argued Mr. K. S. Hirlekar, the leader of the deputation of the Independent Film Producers' Association, while discussing the post-war problems relating to the film industry with Sir Ardeshir Dalal, Member for Planning and Development, Government of India this morning.

The deputation of the Association composed of Messrs. Chhotabhai D. Desai, President of the Association, D. R. D. Wadia, K. M. Multani and K. S. Hirlekar, Hon. Secretary.

The deputation stated that the report of Indian Cinematograph Committee of 1927-28 was pigeon-holed. The industry has expanded considerably and the Government has practically neglected the same inspite of the assurances on the Assembly floor. It is high time that an Enquiry Committee was set up immediately to consider the immediate and long problems and to encourage it to achieve its proper place in the economy of the country.

The fact cannot, in the opinion of the deputation, be ignored that motion pictures can play an important role in the post-war problems particularly relating to education, health, irrigation, concentrated agriculture and industrialisation in which the Government of India and the country is keenly interested.

Sir Ardeshir Dalal patiently listened to the arguments of the deputation and has promised to set up, a panel to investigate into the film industry.

Messrs. Chhotubhai D. Desai and K. S. Hirlekar, President and Secretary of the Independent Film Producers' Association left for Delhi by Punjab Mail to-day to meet and discuss with the Commerce Member and the Secretary of the Industries and Civil Supplies Department, Government of India, immediate problems affecting the independent film producers of the country.

NO CLOTH TO BE TAKEN WITH PERSONAL LUGGAGE?

Govt. Ban On Passengers To Janjira, Cambay And Kathiawar States?

(From Our Correspondent)

AHMEDABAD, Oct. 28.

Serious dearth of cloth will be experienced by the people of Janjira, Cambay, Jawara and Kathiawar States, as it is reliably understood that the Government of India have recently amended its order, permitting travellers going to the above-mentioned States to carry with them cloth upto 10 yards. According to this new amendment nobody will be allowed to carry with him even a single yard of cloth henceforth. In this connection it must be remembered that in the past a great number of cloth bales were exported secretly from Kathiawar ports to foreign countries

NORTH KANARA MUSLIM ASSOCIATION

The Muslims of North Kanara, residing in Bombay, were hitherto an unorganised lot scattered all over the city with the result they could not come together and devise means for their common betterment. Recently due to the efforts of some earnest public spirited workers, among them, they have organised themselves, into a strong Association of their own, like other Muslim groups in the City.

A meeting of the North Kanara Muslims was convened at Nagpada Neighbourhood House. Mr. Adam Adil presided. Prof. A. M. Moulavi, who was connected with Kanara Muslims during his long professorial period in Southern Division, spoke on the economic and social uplift of the Kanara Muslims. He referred to the extreme poverty of the people of Kanara, specially of the Muslims and stressed the need of a strong organisation to work for their economic and social amelioration.

Mr. Y. D. Syed, Hon. First Class Magistrate of Hubli, who was in Bombay, stressed the need of Kanara Muslims taking up to higher education in larger numbers. Mr. S. Abdul Karim, who was Secretary to the Arabian princes while they were in India and Mr. S. Mahomed Yusuf also spoke. Adam Adil appealed to Kanara Muslims to help Kanara Muslim Education Society. He said North Kanara Muslim Association is pledged to do everything for the betterment of Kanara Muslims.

Sargent Explains Education Plan For India

LONDON Oct. 30.

Mr. John Sargent, Educational Commissioner to the Government of India, in the course of a BBC talk on education, chiefly in regard to India, said, "During the first 25 years we propose to extinguish illiteracy in all people from the ages of ten to forty.

Our scheme provides for both the extension of literacy and then for something more. Our whole plan protests against the teaching of people to make them merely literate in a very narrow sense."

As regards higher education, he said the most important thing was more careful selection for candidates for admission. Masses of Indians possessed first rate intelligence but never got to the surface. Until now adult education had meant to the average Indian, mere literacy.

In Mr. Sargent's opinion Indians suffer a severe handicap by being taught in a foreign language but, after much discussion, it has been decided that for the time being there is no feasible alternative to English for education at the University stage.

Of Indian women, he said, "In India it is more important to see that the mothers are educated than the fathers. Many Indian women look upon their boys as needing education and their daughters not."—A.P.

Jogeshwari English School

The Jogeshwari English School, which is located in Saraswati Bagh, Jogeshwari, has been in existence since 1930 and has catered to the needs of the school-going population of not only Saraswati Bagh but also of Andheri and nearby villages, who have no other school in their midst teaching through the medium of Marathi. The school, which teaches up to the Fourth Standard, has on its roll over 50 students belonging to all classes, including Harijans who are taught free, and is managed by a committee with the help of contributions from the Government and the public. These contributions, however, are insufficient to enable the school to make any rapid progress. The school has also no independent building of its own. An appeal is made to all lovers of education and other philanthropically-minded ladies and gentlemen to extend their help to the school so that the same may widen its activities and be placed on a sound footing.

AHMEDABAD, Oct. 30.—A committee for the delimitation of wards in the city on the principles of universal adult franchise and separate electorates for Scheduled Classes was appointed by the Committee of Management of Ahmedabad Municipality today.

OUR KITES OVER KOHIMA and KABAW
"...To-day our aircraft flew over enemy territory and delivered thousands of pound loads of bombs and strafed enemy positions, strongholds and troop concentrations..."
This is a typical communique and behind it lie the stories of the deeds and exploits of our Indian Airmen, who have proved worthy of the trust we reposed in them. Their courage, skill and endurance in the air or on the ground in the worst weather in the world and over appalling country, have won the admiration of all who have known them and seen their work.
TO-DAY, Fighters, Dive-bombers and Reconnaissance squadrons of the INDIAN AIR FORCE are operating in strength over enemy occupied territory in Arakan and Burma.

OUR Kites were over Kohima during the epic battle. To-day they are flying far into Burma. Hurricanes and Vengeances have hurled death and destruction on the enemy. INDIA IS PROUD OF HER I.A.F. BOYS

W.I.A.A. TRIUMPHANT IN SATIRANJAN SHIELD

It was a grand final in which the Bombay City Police, holders, and the W. I. A. A. Staff, runners-up, contested again for the possession of the coveted Satiranjan Memorial Shield at the St. Xavier's College ground, Parel, on Sunday evening. An enthusiastic crowd of 5,000 was present on the occasion.

The fight was replete with thrills and interesting episodes and excitement ran high till the last minute. Ultimately the Automobilemen emerged victorious by the narrow margin of 3 goals to 2.

It was a fast game in which the ball travelled from end to end at short intervals. The Policemen according to their usual tradition on the Parel ground, rose to the occasion and put up one of their best shows. Their two flankmen, Vandockum and Peter contrived to fill the picture to a large extent. Were it not for the splendid goal-keeping of Sanjiva, the 'cops' might have taken the lead earlier than the twenty-fifth minute of play, when Smith, their centre-forward found the net. The lead was, however, short-lived as Mohideen, playing centre forward levelled up matters for the W.I.A.A. before the break-up.

DHAKURAM'S GRAND GOAL

Soon after the interval, Thomas put the Automen ahead in a startling fashion. They might have further consolidated their position, were it not for the fine defence put up by the Policemen with Vickers in goal and Jameson at back outstanding. Dhakuram made repeated incursions in to the Police territory but he overdid the dodging business at times. Humphreys helped him a good deal in his enterprises. Meanwhile Peter helped Stanley to equalise. After a period of fascinating tug-of-war, Dhakuram scored the winning goal in grand style. His running shot beat the Police custodian neck and cup.

THE TEAMS

W. I. A. Staff: Sanjiva; Solomon and Suvarna; Humphreys and Govind; Aziz, Parab, Mohideen Thomas and Dhakuram.

City Police: Vickers; Jameson and Ross; Middlecoat, Osborne and Deatker; Vandockum, Adams, Smith, Stanley and Peter.

Referee: H. Reddin.

BENEFIT MATCH FOR DADOO

At the conclusion of the match, Mr. J. C. Maitra, President of the Indian Football League, thanked all those who had helped to make the tournament a great success. Then he announced that his committee had decided to donate the entire proceeds of the Hardlines Cup match between the Embarkation Staff and the South Indians on Friday next, to Mr. Dadoo, a pioneer Indian footballer of Bombay, who has been suffering from T. B. for the last few months. Mr. Maitra appealed to all sportsmen to extent their helping hand to him.

Mr. Krishna Prasada, Post Master-General of Bombay, presiding, made a humurous speech in the course of which he sympathised with the Police for missing the hat-trick so narrowly. Then he congratulated the W. I. A. A. on their well-merited success. He expressed his great pleasure in seeing the long strides Bombay's football had taken in recent years.

Mrs. Prasada distributed the prizes and trophies.

The Pipes Band of the City Police entertained the spectators with fine selections of music during the intervals of the matches.

As the last year has shown, investments in goods, property, land and commodities have turned out badly. Prices have fallen and money invested in these things has visibly SHRUNK!
Lucky, indeed, the wise people who invested in sound securities. Their savings have grown. Their money has become more valuable. Assisted by price controls and increased manufactures, they are defeating the profiteers and hoarders. They have rendered both India and themselves a great service.
Keep on with the good work. Prices are still falling and will continue to do so as long as people spend less and save more. Now, as many people have found out, money investments are the best. Any of these is absolutely secure:—Co-operative Societies, Insurance, Savings Bank Account, Post-Office Savings Bank, Government Loans, National Savings Certificates.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Better a thousandfold abuse of free speech than denial of free speech. The abuse dies in a day, but the denial slays the life of the people and entombs the hope of the race.

—Charles Bradlaugh.

TEACHERS IN CONFERENCE

The Bombay Provincial Secondary Teachers' Conference, which held its seventh annual session last week in the City under the presidentship of Mr. B. G. Kher, does not, in the present state of things, exert the influence that it should on the education of the province. Mr. Kher rightly pointed out that unless and until the people had a Government which was genuinely interested in the welfare of the people and which was responsible to them, whatever schemes they framed and designed to draw for the reform and reorganisation of their educational systems, were bound to be of the nature of mere academical discussion with no practical results. This disability affects the teachers as well as the taught. It tends to make the teachers themselves bookish and prevents them from playing a fuller role in the nation's life. It is true, as Mr. Kher said, that teachers cannot be expected to be active politicians, but he did well to add that "in the struggle for India's freedom teachers cannot remain indifferent", that "they must not become unpatriotic and timid onlookers or sycophants".

One reason why teachers in India are unable to discharge fully their duties as citizens in spite of their being well educated is that they are so miserably paid that most of them have to eke out their income with private tuition work morning, evening and night or any other work they can get. In the present days of high cost of living the teachers' plight is most pitiable. Again and again have teachers' conferences demanded as the Bombay Conference has done, that the teachers' salaries should be substantially raised. But during the last few years of high prices the teachers have been worse off than before because of the less purchasing power of their salaries together with their make-believe dearness allowances. There is much talk now-a-days about post-war educational planning. The planners will do well to realise betimes that no schemes of reform will yield the desired results unless the teachers who have to work them are paid salaries that make any decent living possible.

An unusual subject that came up for consideration at this year's conference was with regard to the recent University scandals. The resolution thereon was unexceptionable. It deplored the malpractices that had been revealed and urged the University to take steps to prevent their repetition in the future. But it is amazing that it was opposed by a few teachers even in the open session. They seemed to fear that preventive action might in practice disqualify all school teachers from being examiners because of the sins of a few. But the fear is groundless. The University cannot be so unjust. Moreover, it cannot do without teachers in examining tens of thousands of candidates. In any case the conference would have stultified itself if it had passed over the glaring scandals or if it had not urged the University to take suitable action to prevent them. If at all the action taken is unsuitable, it will of course have to be condemned. But no responsible body of teachers could be silent on the malpractices revealed. Mr. Kher quite properly remarked that if the resolution were defeated he would have resigned his Presidentship. Teachers in India, though pitifully poor and subject to various other disabilities, have maintained a high tradition of honour and are therefore highly revered by students. They should strive to maintain that tradition at any cost.

Iran And Russia

The best that can be said is that Russia is countering Imperialism with Imperialism and capitalism with capitalism. But the attitude that Russia seems to have adopted towards Iran cannot but cause grave concern to those who want Iran to live and progress in freedom unhampered by interference from powerful outsiders. Britain, America and the Soviet Union have all been trying to secure oil concessions in that country, their efforts being inevitably reinforced by the circumstances of the present situation, that is to say, virtual military occupation of Iran by the three Powers. The Government of Iran under Premier Saeed has taken a position with which it is difficult for any impartial observer to find fault. If the Premier objects to the granting of any concessions at all it does not lie in the mouth of any Soviet leader to accuse him for doing what the Russians decided upon as among the first things after the Revolution. They not only ruled against any future foreign concessions in Soviet Russia—even at a time when Russia needed foreign "assistance" more than Iran does today—they actually cancelled existing ones without any compensation. The trouble about what are called Czarist debts and bonds still occasionally crops up. Even apart from the principle rightly popularised by Russia herself, no patriotic Government could do less than put the whole question off till after the war when, as the powers concerned have at least promised, they would clear out of Iran, thus affording the Government an opportunity to decide upon its oil plans free from pressure and the present anomalous situation. The present position of Iran as the oil hunting ground of great Powers is bad enough and needs relief. Where lies the crime of Premier Saeed in being unwilling to make it worse?

Russia's oil rush, the present campaign in Moscow as well as Teheran and the announcement just made by M. Kavtzaradze, the Soviet Vice-Commissar for Foreign Affairs, leave a bad taste in the mouth. They suggest that Russia, Communist Russia, has lined up with capitalist Powers to take a big share in the exploitation of another country on the same capitalist arguments and excuses in direct negation of her own policy, practice and profession. She is taking advantage of her power and her position to interfere in the internal affairs of another country, to beat that country down by the force of her might. Agitation inside Iran does not justify the Russian attitude; it only pointedly emphasises the grim fact that Iran is today under the military and political domination of Russia, Britain and America. And M. Kavtzaradze's sympathetic solicitude in regard to unemployment is worse than merely naive. There are dozens of countries in the world and in Europe, suffering from tragic unemployment. We do not know of a single instance of the Russian Government's demand on any one of them to cure their malaise even without a concession to Russia. And rightly so. Russia did not desire to interfere in the internal economy, political, industrial or social, of any foreign country. Russia accepted their right to independence and complete freedom to live whatever lives they liked, good or bad. Russia moreover, has openly proclaimed her adherence to the Atlantic Charter. But all the principles Russia has professed so far and so long are now being thrown aside. The campaign against Iran is more or less of a pattern with the historic practice of Powers seeking economic and political Imperialism, a practice with which the world is familiar and a practice—this is the irony of the situation—which Russian leaders had hitherto done much to expose. That practice is being adopted to-day by Russia herself supported, moreover, by menacing, dictatorial hints.

Frankly Speaking

Historic Victory

Admiral Nimitz's latest report on the second battle of the Philippine Sea confirms first impressions. The Japanese Navy has suffered the worst defeat perhaps ever sustained by any naval power. Out of sixty Japanese warships only two escaped unscathed. Of the fifty-eight, twenty-four, most probably thirty-seven, have been completely destroyed and the remaining twenty-one may be out of service for many months. The losses that the Japanese have sustained permanently or temporarily include no fewer than nine battleships, four aircraft carriers and thirteen heavy cruisers. The claim is, therefore, justified that the total naval strength of Japan has been reduced by half. And this magnificent result has been achieved for the loss of one light carrier, two escort carriers and a few other small vessels.

Great Opportunities

American naval power thus remains at the same level as when it got General MacArthur's forces ashore on Leyte. With the Jap fleet so decisively crippled, Admiral Nimitz has now open to him far reaching opportunities which he is sure to take. More destructive blows have been rendered imminent and we should not be surprised if the Americans launched another big operation nearer Japan and Formosa pretty soon. But the battle of the Philippine Sea affords great opportunities to Lord Louis Mountbatten too. Whatever may have been regarded as the strength of the Eastern Fleet requisite for operations in the Bay of Bengal comparable to those in the Pacific, that strength too has been reduced to half—even less than half—by the Americans. In other words, Admiral Mountbatten's resources are now sufficient for offensive action in the Bay of Bengal.

Journalists' Emoluments

The resolution of the Standing Committee of the All-India Newspaper Editors' Conference on the emoluments and working conditions of journalists is not all that one could desire, nor does it do substantial justice to journalists; but if given effect to in full it will certainly bring appreciable relief to a large number of journalists. The minimum basic salary of Rs. 100 per month, recommended for newspapers printed in English, cannot be said to be overgenerous. But it is to be hoped that the word "basic" implies an extra dearness allowance during the continuance of the present conditions. We cannot appreciate the absence of any recommendation about minimum periodical promotions. A fair recommendation on this all-important point—a journalist, like many others, lives on hope—is urgent and should not be indefinitely postponed.

Hyderabad Budget

The Budget figures of the State of Hyderabad for the year 1354 Fasli, ending 5th October, 1945, show that for the last five years the State has had fairly fat surpluses, increasing steadily from Rs. 46 lakhs five years ago to 249 lakhs in the current year. And the Budget for the next year provides for a surplus of 309 lakhs. This means generally that year after year more is taken from the people than is necessary or that less is given to the people than what might have been given safely. Though no new taxation is imposed no relief in taxation is promised in the Budget year. But it is gratifying to learn that the whole system of taxation is being reviewed by experts and that their recommendations will soon be published to elicit public opinion. The accumulated surpluses of the past years will, we expect, be utilised for post-war plans of reconstruction which are being considered by the State Government.

Possible Progress

The regular surpluses should be helpful in cutting down the revenue from liquor and opium and promoting prohibition. They should also be helpful in speeding up education, particularly mass education including free and compulsory education of children and the education of adults. Most welcome is the provision in the Budget for the next year of 11 lakhs for Central Industrial Research Laboratory, of 15 lakhs for a grant for College of Agriculture and Animal Husbandry and of 10 lakhs for the building and equipment for Women's College to suit women's special requirements. But much better provision is necessary for mass education on the foundation of which alone can progress in higher education be permanent. The Budget notes do not indicate the latest progress of mass education. But the Administration Report for the year ending October 1940 shows that in that year the percentage of scholars under instruction to the population of school-going age was only 20 as against 19.1 in the previous year and that the percentage for girls was only 7.1. Progress ought to be speeded up, and Hyderabad can easily afford to do that. Mr. Ghulam Mahomed, the Finance Member, has handled the finances of the State very ably. He is an administrator with imagination as well as ability. He has equipped the Hyderabad State with the means of economic progress, such as the Hyderabad State Bank, the Hyderabad Exchange and Share Bazar, and schemes for harnessing of the energy of the three rivers Tungabhadra, the Krishna and the Godavari and we have no doubt under his guidance as Finance Member the Hyderabad State may look to the future with confidence.

A. I. R. Music Programme

In reply to my criticism on A.I.R. Music programmes Messrs. Bhatkal and Aversare have rushed to the defence of Shanta Apte's "winged, solid, profound and classical" music. I am certain no lover of real good music will agree with these Shanta-fans.

Newspaper column is unfortunately not medium for discussion on music. My critics have however supported me by their weak logic and heroine-worship exposing their utter ignorance and lack of taste.

I personally have nothing against Shanta Apte. She was but one of the boring galaxy of singers on A.I.R.

I soon hope to analyse the rottenness of the A.I.R. programmes through the columns of the press. Dr. D. G. Vyas, the art critic of the "Bombay Chronicle", in its issue of Sunday, Oct. 29th, initiated the discussion and I am sure, it will continue, whether the Delhi philistines and their followers like it or not.

I hope the silent critics of the A.I.R. will at last take this opportunity to ventilate their grievances.

Bhoopali at 7-15 a.m.!

How All-India Radio Station murder our great Indian classical music in their daily programmes is a matter known to every true lover of music. In this respect I had correspondence with the Member in Charge of Publicity and Radio and had drawn his attention to the great wrong done to Indian music by not following the proper time at which the 'Ragas' should be sung by the All-India Radio Stations.

The Hon. Member, who himself is a musician, admitted this great defect and had informed me that he would immediately issue orders to all the Stations to see that the Ragas are sung at their proper times and seasons. I am informed that such orders were actually issued to all the Stations. How are these orders carried out by the Bombay Station? I give below the few Ragas which were sung at the most improper, I should say, outrageous times. For instance the Bhoopali Raga was sung on 16th October, 1944 at 7-15 a.m.! Other instances are as follows:

Wednesday 18th October—Sur-Malhar at 10 a.m.

Tuesday 6th October—Gaud Sarang, at 5 p.m.

The same Raga, i.e., Gaud Sarang at 9-50 a.m.

How long is this sacrilege to continue?

Aga Khan's Marriage

It was given out by you that the marriage of H.H. the Aga Khan which took place very recently at Geneva was his third marriage, but this is not correct. His Highness first married, years ago, his cousin the daughter of H.H. Jangishah his uncle, but there was no child born of her and she died a couple of years ago. The second marriage was with Princess Teresa from Italy, the mother of Prince Alyshah, and after her death he married a French lady the mother of Prince Sadruddin, and now recently he has married at Geneva which is his fourth marriage.

I write this as the Begam of H.H is treated by Khoja Ismaili as Mata Salamat (the mother of the community) and, therefore, the omission of the First Lady of H.H. The Aga Khan's family hurts the feelings of the followers of H.H. The Aga Khan.

Scandals In University Examinations

I have read your leader in the issue of October 26th in connection with "Scandals in University Examinations," in which you charge me with making a reactionary suggestion, in sofar as I suggest that the Governor should pass a special ordinance empowering himself to remove undesirable persons from the Senate.

What are the facts? You categorically state that the University authorities have shown themselves not at all lacking in the will, nor the power, to bring to light "such offences, and punish the offenders". The Syndicate has definitely refused a request for publication of the names of College professors and principals of schools on the ground that as the names of examiners are a confidential matter, the publication of examiners charged with and proved guilty of wrong practices is an equally confidential matter. Is this an indication of the will to bring to light offences? If it is a poor student or a junior supervisor he can be condemned with righteous indignation and his name announced to the world, but if it is a professor or the head of a high school, he has to be shielded.

You also say "we trust leading members of the Senate, the syndicate, or any other University authority concerned will not fail to support actively the courageous stand taken by the Vice-Chancellor." Is there any justification for this "trust", when with a scathing report in their hands your leading members of the Senate proceeded to elect some of these very members, found guilty of wrong practices as examiners, to seats on the Boards of studies, bodies which are empowered to recommend panels of examiners? Is this not a direct condonation of the offence by members of the Senate?

In fact it is a custom that members of the Senate should be disqualified as examiners and be elected to Boards of Studies. You can rest assured that the recommendation to remove the person from membership of the Senate will be nullified as the results of a whip going round, as we are given to understand. It was in view of these considerations that I made the suggestion that you call "reactionary". The words "constitutional" and "reactionary" are relative terms: the end may often determine the character of the means, who knows if the act of refraining from the means suggested may not turn out to be even more reactionary? The present scandals are only symptoms of a disease that is deeply rooted and this disease affects not only examiners but the entire body of the Senate. We need the priests of the Lord to blow with their trumpets and the people to shout before the walls of Jericho can fall.

BATTLE FOR BURMESE LAND ROUTE TO CHINA

2,000 SQUARE MILES CLEARED OF JAPS: NEW DRIVE BY CHINESE UNITS

KANDY, Oct. 30.

From Alan Humphreys, A. P. I. special correspondent:

Nearly 2,000 square miles of Northern Burma had been cleared and numerous communities liberated during the operations of the past few weeks.

Ninety miles of North Burma's main communication line—the Myitkyina-Rangoon railway is now cleared.

CHINESE DO THEIR BIT

Starting from Myitkyina on October 15, Chinese units moved southwards to Kantaoyang and then continued along the road to Myothit, the occupation of which is announced in to-day's "communique". 57 miles farther south.

NEW DRIVE

A new drive has opened in Northern Burma, it is announced in a Press note issued by S. E. A. C Headquarters today for opening of the land route to China.

In the new drive Chinese troops have advanced 57 miles south along the Bhamo Road into Japanese-held territory. Simultaneously British 36th Division troops moved south-west along the Mogaung-Mandalay railway and have advanced 36 miles towards Katha, 30 miles further south. To the east, the southern most patrols prior to the new offensive had probed Kantaoyang, 33 miles south of Myitkyina.

Chinese units starting from the Irrawaddy at Myitkyina on October 15 moved south to Kantaoyang and then continued along the road to Myothit, 57 miles further south.

Early yesterday, leading elements of one Chinese unit engaged a small group just north of Taping river near Myothit 24 miles north of Bhamo. The Jap patrols withdrew and later in the day the Chinese moved into the town and occupied it. The Taping river and surrounding hills make the present positions the most desirable natural defensive positions between Myitkyina and Bhamo.

Bhamo, 113 miles south of Myitkyina is approximately 75 miles north-west of Muse, near the spur junction with the old Burma Road into China.

36TH DIVISION

Moving somewhat more slowly against more opposition, Maj.-Gen. F. W. Festings 36th Division, pushing south-west from Hopin, through Namma; occupied Mohnyin with only a minor skirmish, and then proceeded further along the railway, and on roads and trails flanking it, to Mawhun. Leading elements of the Division are now approximately half way between Mawhun and Mawlu, an advance of 36 miles from Hopin.

British troops patrolled southwards through Mawhun towards Mawlu.

ARAKAN:—West African troops in the Kaladan Valley have made contact with the enemy eight miles north of Paletwa.

CHIN HILLS:—Men from an Indian regiment who made two attacks against a strongpoint on the Tiddim-Fort White road got within 50 years of the summit and inflicted casualties before withdrawing under heavy mashinegun fire.

Fifty miles south of Tiddim, Japanese garrisons withdrawing from the Falam and Haka were engaged and a number killed.

Germans Massing In Montenegro

From Reuter's special correspondent at Bari: Twenty-thousand Germans from Greece and Albania are massing in the Podgorica area, in Montenegro, 10 miles from the Albanian frontier, preparatory to attempting a break through towards Sarajevo.

At Sarajevo the Germans are reported to be concentrating their men from Bosnia, Herzegovina, the Sandjak and Western Macedonia for an attempt to break-through. Possession of the two important ports of Split and Sibenik and of the naval base of Giz near Dubrovnik will greatly facilitate Allied supplies for Partisans and completely cut the coastal road along which the Germans hope to escape from Albania and Macedonia.—Reuter.

MUNSTER ON SERVICE WELFARE CONDITIONS

KANDY, Oct. 30: The Earl of Munster arrived at S. E. A. C. headquarters to-day after his tour of India.

Interviewed on the results of his study of service welfare conditions, he had been mainly ascertaining the facts and had so far formed no definite conclusions.

He was looking into the position of Emergency Commissioned officers in the Indian army as compared with British army officers serving with the Indian army or serving in India as regards repatriation.

Replying to the contention that the recent pay increases for long service and Far Eastern service had nullified inducement to enter the Indian army, as the increase did not apply to Indian army personnel, he said that he was taking the matter up.

As regards entertainments for troops in India, he was looking into cinema equipment shortages, the question of E. N. S. A. visits and the possibility of introducing the N. A. A. F. I. into India."—A. P.

Stilwell Describes Accomplishments In Burma

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, Commander of U.S. China-Burma-India forces, in a nation-wide broadcast of a transcription made recently at his headquarters, said American and British Empire troops in the Salween River district have reached a point where a junction of the new Ledo Road and the old Burma Road can be foreseen, which will result in a good supply route to China.

Stilwell said: "As you know China, our ally, has been fighting the Japanese since 1937. She has lost all her ports, she has no way of getting munitions and other help she so sorely needs.

"Opening a port on the coast is still in the future. Meantime, the only way to help is to reopen the Burma Road and go in through the backdoor."

Stilwell described how since the end of 1943 Allied forces have staged a comeback in northern Burma. He said they had wiped out superior Japanese forces and that the Ledo Road, an "incredible feat of Army engineering, has been built in the wake of the fighting", putting the enemy in a "very bad hold."

Stilwell emphasised that Chinese, Indian British and American forces had contributed equally to the successes in northern Burma.—USOWI.

Textile Shares Very Steady

GOLD AND SILVER FIRM BUT COTTON QUIET

BOMBAY, Oct. 30.

On the Bombay Stock Exchange cotton mill shares ruled very steady with moderate demand but steel share were dull.

In the bullion market both gold and silver ruled fairly firm on growing demand and day's sales by the bank were readily absorbed. Cotton market was quiet.

The Share bazar was quietly steady with a restricted turnover and quotations once again moved within a narrow range. Many observers are making attempts to describe the present state cheerful but they find no following and general business remains at a low ebb. Tata Steel Defds opened at Rs. 2065 and after improving to Rs. 2070 reacted to Rs. 2065. Ordinary shares opened at Rs. 382 and steadied at Rs. 383. Bombay Dyeing shares opened at Rs. 1735 and after improving to Rs. 1740 quietened at Rs. 1735. Kohinoor Mill shares opened at Rs. 573 and improved to Rs. 575 but reacted to Rs. 573. Gold & Silver

Bombay, Oct. 30.

The Bank sold to-day 30,000 tolas gold at Rs. 63/4 and 100 bars of silver at Rs. 117/4, but the market demand being considerably in excess of the supply prices hardened. It is said that the note circulation is steadily incresing and war news from the East were not very satisfactory. Thus the market is taking a bullish view at present and supplies are readily absorbed. Ready gold was quoted at Rs. 64/8 and the current settlement was quoted at Rs. 63/8 while the next settlement was done at Rs. 62/4. Ready silver after advancing to Rs. 117/12 reacted to Rs. 117/4 while Spot silver was placed at Rs. 118/8. No trading was reported in the next settlement of silver but nominal quotation was rupees two lower.

The market finally closed as under. Ready Gold Rs. 63/12. Forward Rs. 62/4. Sovereigns Rs. 44/10. Ready Silver Rs. 118/4. Forward Rs. 117/8.

Bombay Cotton

Bombay, Oct. 30.

The local cotton market opened steady at Rs. 413 for March delivery and improved to Rs. 414 on scattered buying influenced by untimely rains. Rains at this time of the year can damage the quality of open cotton but with increased sub-soil moisture can increase the quantity. Later on there was increased selling pressure and March declined to Rs. 410/8 while May was quoted at Rs. 418/8. As pointed out before the cotton outlok is not encouraging.

Prices after declining to Rs. 409/8 steadied in moderate buying and closed at 6 p. m. as under:—

I.C.C. May	419	8 0

France Enquiring For Four Lakh Bales Of American Cotton

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.

Cotton rallied on commission house demand attributed to the belief that the Government buying programme will ultimately tighten the spot situation and expectations of a large post-war demand both at home and abroad. Attention was also directed towards the diminishing volume of South spot inquiry, probably reflecting unwillingness of producers to sell after the recent decline. According to Memphis advices there is increasing disagreement in Washington regarding sales of cotton at world prices. Spain is reported to have accepted offers for a considerable amount, and it is rumoured that France is inquiring for 4,00,000 bales. Cotton goods were quiet with mills fully occupied with a heavy backlog of war orders.

Cotton was a routine trade affair with the market awaiting Washington and war developments. The small opening gains met scattered hedges and local selling based on the usual weekend uncertainties and lack of fresh incentives. The trade confined purchases on declines and the session closed steady. The market closed at a rise of one point to a decline of 5 points.

Marine War Risk On Cotton Piecegoods

In order to facilitate movement, the Government of India have agreed to cover Marine War Risk on cotton piece goods and yarn transported by sea from Bombay to Calcutta during the month of November to an extent of 25,000 bales only. Terms and conditions are the same as those which were operative before this concession was withdrawn as from 1st May, 1944, i.e. War Risk shall be as defined in the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Ordinance and the rules framed thereunder and shall be covered without charge while such goods are in transit on the sea provided that consignments have been insured prior to despatch by sea against Marine Risk with a registered Insurance Company or Underwriter at the cost of the consignor or consignee as the case may be.

The Government of India's liability shall, in such cases, be limited to a sum which, in no case, shall exceed the sum insured under the Marine Policy. In respect of damage due to War Risks, compensation will be paid by the Government in accordance with the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Ordinance. The Government of India will carry the War Risks if the Textile Commissioner, Department of Industries and Civil Supplies, Hararwalla Building, Wittet Road, Ballard Estate, Bombay, has received a duly authorised copy of the Marine Insurance Policy or a certificate issued by a registered Insurance Company or Underwriter before shipment. Shippers must see that such a copy is despatched to the Textile Commissioner prior to shipment.

If a case arises where loss due to War Risk has occurred before receipt by the Textile Commissioner of the authorised copy of a Marine Insurance Policy or certificate, the shipper must prove that such a copy was despatched to Government before shipment before any claim can be considered. Under no circumstances will Government consider a claim where the shipper, consignor or consignee has not effected at his own cost Marine Insurance with a registered Insurance Company prior to the despatch by sea of the consignment concerned.

"REAP HARVEST IN BLOOD"

Negro Paper On Britain's "Arbitrary Attitude Towards India"

LONDON, Oct. 29.

"The American diplomatic representative places the blame of Great Britain's arbitrary attitude towards India directly on Prime Minister Churchill and his Tory Government," writes the "Pittsburgh Courier," an influential Negro newspaper, publishing two significant paragraphs from the letter to President Roosevelt of Mr. William Phillips, personal representative of the President in India.

"It is clear," adds the paper, "that the present British Government has no more idea of lifting its foot off the neck of Indians than the current reactionary windjammers of our own Southern States have of giving the Negro Americans a chance in this country.

"The British official policy towards India and the popular policy in our own Southern States plainly show deception in the current war aims and the existence of strong forces which are determined that the ideals which all races and colours are fighting and dying for are, to use Mr. Phillips' own words, for the benefit of the white race.

"The Tories in our Southern States may be able to get away with this deceit but in the orient its concrete effect is bound to be an addition to the price which the Americans and Englishmen must pay in lives to win the war and especially, the peace. The United Nations cannot be built on a firm and lasting foundation so long as responsible elements in Great Britain and America carry on with their tongues in their cheeks.

"If Britain and America do not come clean now, it is written in stars that they shall reap the harvest in blood. There can be no peace so long as this double dealing persists".—United Press.

ASIATIC CRUSADE OF AMERICANS

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.

Under the heading "Our Asiatic Crusade" the New York "Sunday News" says editorially, "not much as said in this country about our boys' part in keeping India safe from the Japanese and safe for the British. But our boys have done, and are doing a great deal towards that end. They have taken a big part in repelling the Japanese invasion of India; are scheduled to take even a better part in the campaign to recapture Burma for Britain. British help in these enterprises, to date, has been small. Mr. Churchill, unlike our own great brain, is too foxy to fight two major wars at the same time if he can possibly avoid it. India is a nation much like China, in that it has about 390 million people who do not care enough for freedom to fight for it and hence do not have it. We do not imply that British domination was bad for China or that British rule is bad for India. The British were always nice about letting Americans do business in China (though we did more business with Japan). British law and sanitary measures in India have undoubtedly kept that country from blowing up in chaos and filth. What we do contend is that we ought to know what our boys are fighting for in this Asiatic Crusade".—Reuter.

Allied Terms To Bulgaria

Bulgar Army To Be Withdrawn From Greece And Yugoslavia

LONDON, Oct. 29: Bulgarian armed forces and officials must be withdrawn within a specified time limit from Greece and Yugoslavia and the Bulgarian authorities must immediately take steps to repeal all legislative and administrative provisions relating to the annexation or incorporation in Bulgaria of Greek or Yugoslav territory.

This is one of the main terms of the armistice agreement between Britain, the United States, Soviet Russia and Bulgaria published to-night Sunday.

REPARATIONS

The protocol to the agreement states that Bulgaria will immediately make available foodstuffs for the relief of the population of Greek and Yugoslav territories which suffered as a result of the Bulgarian aggression, to be considered as part of Bulgaria's reparation for loss and damage sustained by Greece and Yugoslavia.

Allied Soviet High Command will arrange for the provision of Bulgarian currency, supplies, service etc. to meet the needs of representatives of the British and United States Governments in Bulgaria.

DISARM NAZI FORCES

Under the terms of armistice the Government of Bulgaria undertake to disarm the German armed forces in Bulgaria and hand them over as prisoners of war and also intern the nationals of Germany and her satellites.

Bulgaria undertakes to maintain and make available such land, sea and air forces as may be specified for service under the general direction of the Allied High Command.

On the conclusion of hostilities against Germany, Bulgarian armed forces must be demobilised and put on a peace footing under the supervision of an Allied control mission.

Bulgarian authorities must immediately take steps to withdraw from Greek and Yugoslav territory, Bulgarians who were citizens of Bulgaria on January 1st, 1941.

Bulgaria will give the Soviet and other Allied forces freedom of movement over the Bulgarian territory in any direction if the military situation so requires, with their own means of communication and at their own expense.

Other terms include immediate release of all Allied prisoners of war and internees and all persons held in detention in connection with their activities in favour of the United Nations, repeal of all discriminatory legislation and disabilities, co-operation in the apprehension and trial of persons accused of war crimes, immediate dissolution of all pro-Fascist, political, military and other organisations on Bulgarian territory conducting propaganda hostile to the United Nations, restoration of all United Nations property and reparation for loss and damage caused by the war, return of all valuables and materials removed during the war to Germany or Bulgaria from the United Nations territory.

All war materials of Germany and her satellites on Bulgarian territory, including vessels in their fleets, to be handed over as booty. Bulgaria to make regular payments in Bulgarian currency and supply goods (fuel, food stuffs, etc.), facilities and services as may be required by Allied (Soviet) High Command.

Bulgarian merchant vessels to be subject to operational control of the Soviet High Command for use in the General interests of the Allies.

The terms came into force on Saturday when the armistice was signed in Moscow.—Reuter.

MILK SUPPLY FOR MORE CHILDREN

Over 50,000 Milch Cattle May Be Maintained In City

The benefit given at present to city children under two years of age in regard to the distribution of milk will now be extended to all children under five years of age and also to nursing and expectant mothers. This was announced by Mr. D. S Bakhale Director, Civil Supplies, Bombay, at a press conference held at the Secretariat on Monday evening. Mr Bakhale further stated that in course of time the present scheme will be extended to all school-going children below ten years of age. At present about 37,000 children were benefiting under the scheme. That number will now be considerably increased.

Explaining the implications of the Bombay Shc Cattle Bovines, Licence and Maintenance Order and the Order pertaining to the restrictions on the slaughter of certain types of animals which are fit for work or breeding Mr Bakhale observed that both the orders which are coming into force from the beginning of November aim at the conservation of cattle resources of the country, and as such, have a vital bearing on the reorganization and control of the milk supply of Bombay. Government's scheme regarding salvaging of dry cattles will be carried on a larger scale, and about ten thousand cattle will take its benefit. At present about ten thousand more dry cattle are being salvaged by private individuals. On the whole the city will be able to maintain 53,000 milch cattle in Bombay by the salvaging scheme.

In reply to a question Mr. Bakhale stated that the Government were contemplating the rationing of meat in the city.

This space is dedicated to the courageous men of the glorious Eighth Army, who by their blood and sweat, turned the tide and gave us the first major allied victory of this War. EL ALAMEIN, the key to Egypt, has bitter memories for Rommel. First delay and then defeat at the hands of the Victorious Eighth Army, put an end to his cherished dreams, on 3rd october 1942 Rommel said, "We hold the Gateway of Egypt with the full intention to act. We did not go there with any intention of being flung back now or later. You may rely on our holding fast to what we have got." Empty words and idle boasts O! Rommel. You did not reckon on the Eighth...the Immortal Eighth whose name lives on and will live on unbroken...a terror to the German Army. All honour to those gallant men, many of whom lie buried in the sand..."The bright gleam has caught the helmets of our soldiers, and warmed and cheered all our hearts."
